

Sign Up Now!

Return this form to:

Your local DLRA representative

secretary@dlra.org.au

PO Box 349, Castlemaine VIC 3450

Please complete the form and return to the DLRA

First Name:

Surname:

Phone:

Email:

Which State are you located?

Do you have any experience or skills?

Which roles are you interested in?

What is the DLRA?

The Dry Lakes Racers Australia Inc is the official organisation for Land Speed Racing in Australia and provides for safe, fair and socially responsible motor sport.

The DLRA has been the custodian of Land Speed Racing in Australia since 1990 and Lake Gairdner is the only salt lake in Australia and one of only 3 such venues in the world

The DLRA is a not-for-profit incorporated association representing more than 1,500 members..

The DLRA conducts the annual Speed Week at Lake Gairdner in South Australia, and facilitates the World Speed Trials Australia

“It’s one thing for me to say how good I think we are, but the events we conduct and our team of officials and volunteers and especially our medical and fire and rescue crews have been recognised as world class by a large number of our international competitors”

Greg Wapling - DLRA President

ACCREDITED OFFICIAL

Dry Lakes Racers Australia Inc

Become a Motor Sport Volunteer

- Get Involved
- Get Trained
- Get Trackside

www.dlra.org.au

Become a DLRA Official

DLRA land speed racing events cannot run without all our fantastic volunteer officials and the amazing work they do.

You can become a DLRA Official in two easy steps:

Successfully a 30 minute online theory module

Attend a DLRA event as a trainee to see what role(s) you are interested in.

From here you can attend events, officiate and consider a range of training courses to undertake FREE under the DLRA National Officiating Program (NOP)

Register your interest by completing this tear-away section on this flyer or contact the DLRA office and we will guide you through the process.

All Officials information can also be found at <https://www.dlra.org.au/officials-become-one.htm>

What Training will I receive?

The DLRA will provide all your relevant training FREE to ensure you have the correct knowledge and skill set required for each role you perform..

The DLRA can offer you training from your first day as an official, right through to being qualified to work at international

Benefits of Officiating

- Get close to the action
- Work as part of a professional team
- Receive world class ongoing training to enhance your knowledge and skills
- Have a volunteer career path through training, recognition and professional management
- Build a career as an official and realise opportunities to officiate at international events
- Gain life skills that are recognised by potential employers

What Roles are Available?

There are a variety of positions available to suit everyone.

Roles include'

- Starter
- Timer
- Fire and Rescue Marshall
- Car and Bike Inspectors
- Impound Marshall
- Category Representative
- General Official
- Clerk of Course
- Race Director
- Secretary of the Event
- Event Administration
- Rulebook Coordinator
- Testing Officer
- Safety 1st Representative

What is it like to be a DLRA Official?

"This is my way of participating in a sport that I would never be able to compete in. Best seats in the house and meeting some amazing people. It's hard to beat"

Peter Hulbert - Timer

"I love being a part of it. Gaining experience, confidence, working your way through different levels and hopefully helping others along the way. Developing life skills and being part of a team - these are the rewards .... all this and much more"

Graham Hadley - Chief Motorcycle Inspector

